

Virtual Annual Meeting Agenda

April 7-8, 2022

Thursday: 1:00 – 4:00pm

Friday: 9:00am – 12:00pm

Thursday

---

Thursday's agenda is focused on families and family-led organizations. All are welcome.

1:00 – 1:15 pm	Welcome &amp; introduction – Kimberly Phillips
1:15 – 1:45 pm	Empowering families: Family support, family engagement, and family leadership - Molly Martzke, National Genetics Education and Family Support Center
1:45 – 2:45 pm	Panel: Paying for genetic services Matt Fickie, MD, Highmark, Inc Allyson Baughman, Catalyst Center
2:45 – 3:00 pm	3 questions to frame conversations about genetics - Karen Volle
3:00 – 3:50 pm	Family-to-family genetics-related updates MA – Pat Nemia ME – Carrie Woodcock NH – Deanna Taylor RI – Tara Hayes VT – Jamie Rainville CT – Carmina Cirioli and Nanfi Lubogo
3:50 pm – 4:00 pm	Closing thoughts – Ed Kloza

Friday

---

Friday's agenda is geared toward all NERGN stakeholders. We hope you can join!

9:00 – 9:15 am	Opening remarks – Kimberly Phillips
9:15 – 9:45 am	Updates on NERGN activities GEMSS updates – Leah Burke Education – Ed Kloza Regional telegenetics needs assessment – Kim Phillips Community liaisons in northern Maine - Angel Murchison and Karen Volle
9:45 – 10:20	Cultural competence with genetics Nanfi Lubogo, PATH-CT
10:20 – 11:00 am	The eyes: a window to genetic diagnosis Jodi Hoffman, MD, Boston Medical Center
11:00 -11:50	The search for “truth”: A consumer’s guide to medical testing Ed Kloza, MS, CGC, NERGN
11:50 – noon	Closing remarks Leah Burke, MD
Noon	Adjourn

---